

Make your film festivals more engaging and fun

Get your audience involved with

Share a QR code and let your audience instantly rate and review films right from their phones

Make your audience part of the action and engage their curiosity by sharing real-time results

“Digital ratings make the process so much easier”

-Joseph Katz, Director of Special Programming, Boston Jewish Film Festival

Custom polls allow you to:

Invite your audience to participate in the festival by rating films from their phones

Drive revenue with sponsored polls that can include names and logos of your sponsors

Get instant results to help you with awards or future programming

Include visual cues like movie posters or descriptions to help your audience vote

Let your audience opt-in to receive promotional materials

Streamline film voting with less paper waste and less work for your staff

“On the back end for us, it couldn’t have been easier.

The Boston Jewish Film festival will be back next November and better than ever - with Digital Joy on our side”.
